

Short Description of the Musical

Botanic Garden The Musical

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband. But after more than thirty years of marriage, moving forward is not the same as leaving him behind. Moving between one evening in Kate's present and the memories of a life built together, Botanic Garden The Musical is a tender, deeply human story about love, loss, and the courage to begin again.

Description of the Listening Event

Botanic Garden The Musical

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

Botanic Garden The Musical: A Listening Event invites you to experience the complete musical in a uniquely intimate theatrical format.

With the lights lowered, the story unfolds through the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience, accompanied by captions and an accompanying visual environment. Your attention turns entirely to the voices, music, and story, leaving space for your own imagination to bring Kate and Jake's world to life.

This 70-minute experience offers a different way to encounter musical theatre: not as background music or a conventional performance, but as a shared act of close listening.

Short Online Calendar Listing

Botanic Garden The Musical

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

Experience the complete Botanic Garden The Musical in an intimate theatrical listening event. As Kate prepares for her first date since the death of her husband, memories of their thirty-year marriage fill the evening. With the lights lowered, the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience, captions, and subtle visual imagery invite you into a moving story of love, loss, and beginning again.

Approximately 70 minutes.

Longer Online Calendar or Landing-Page Copy

Botanic Garden The Musical

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

It should be a simple evening: choose a dress, calm her nerves, and step into a new chapter of her life.

But after more than thirty years together, Jake is present in every corner of the room, and in the memories of a marriage filled with humor, tenderness, frustration, change, and enduring love.

Moving between Kate's present and moments from the life she and Jake shared, Botanic Garden The Musical asks a question that is both deeply personal and universal: How do you begin again without letting go of everything that came before?

This special listening event offers an intimate new way to experience the complete musical. With the lights lowered, the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience is accompanied by captions and subtle visual imagery. The voices, music, and story take center stage, allowing each listener's imagination to complete the world of the musical.

Tender, funny, and emotionally honest, Botanic Garden The Musical is a story about a love that continues to shape us and the courage it takes to open the door to what comes next.

The experience runs approximately 70 minutes.

Book by Todd Logan

Music by Lindsay Jones

Lyrics by Lindsay Jones and Todd Logan

Directed by Ann Filmer

Featuring Heidi Kettenring and Mark David Kaplan

Copy for Printed Materials and Posters

BOTANIC GARDEN THE MUSICAL

A THEATRICAL LISTENING EVENT

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

After more than thirty years of marriage, moving forward is not the same as leaving him behind.

Experience the complete musical through the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience in an immersive, 70-minute listening event featuring captions and subtle visual imagery.

[DATE] • [TIME]

[VENUE NAME]

[LOCATION]

[TICKET, RESERVATION, OR ADMISSION INFORMATION]

Book by Todd Logan

Music by Lindsay Jones

Lyrics by Lindsay Jones and Todd Logan

Directed by Ann Filmer

Featuring Heidi Kettenring and Mark David Kaplan

Copy for Email Promotion

Subject: Experience Botanic Garden The Musical

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

Some love stories end. Others simply change shape.

Join us for Botanic Garden The Musical: A Listening Event, an intimate new way to experience theater.

Kate is preparing for her first date since the death of her husband, Jake. But after more than thirty years of marriage, moving forward is not the same as leaving him behind. As she gets ready for the evening, memories of their life together return—funny, complicated, tender, and vividly alive.

With the lights lowered, the musical unfolds through the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience, accompanied by captions and subtle visual imagery. The voices, music, and story invite you to listen closely and imagine Kate and Jake's world for yourself.

Tender, funny, and emotionally honest, Botanic Garden The Musical is a story about love, loss, and the courage to begin again.

[DATE] at [TIME]
[VENUE NAME]
[LOCATION]

The experience runs approximately 70 minutes.

[RESERVE YOUR SEAT / LEARN MORE / PURCHASE TICKETS]

Copy for Social Media

It's Kate's first date as a widow and she's desperate to get out of it. There's only one person who can help—Jake, her dead husband.

As she gets ready, memories of their thirty-year marriage fill the evening in Botanic Garden The Musical—a tender, funny, and deeply human story about love, loss, and beginning again.

Experience the complete musical in an intimate theatrical listening event featuring the exclusive audio recording designed for the listening experience, captions, and subtle visual imagery.

[DATE AND TIME]

[VENUE NAME AND LOCATION]

[TICKET OR RESERVATION INFORMATION]

Approximately 70 minutes.

#BotanicGardenTheMusical #MusicalTheatre